

Ever-Present Eternal Holy Triune God,

we believe in You, praise and love You, and thank You for Your infinite love, goodness, and mercy, and that You redeemed us on the Holy Cross on Golgotha in Jerusalem.

You are our King, our Redeemer, our salvation, and our eternal life.

Our Holy Lord and God, You have said:

“All who are pure of heart shall behold Me in Paradise and be eternally happy, where there is no pain and no sorrow.”

Humbly we ask You, together with the exalted Holy Virgin Mary, our Mother and Queen, great Mediatrix of all graces, with Saint Joseph, Patron of the dying, and with all the holy angels and saints — remain always our help and protection.

We ask you all to be with us when we feel fear of men, when we are persecuted, suffering, sick, and in the hour of our death.

Defend and deliver us in all dangers and temptations from the devils.

Almighty and powerful God, Creator of Heaven and Earth,
we trust in You.

Please take away from all demons everywhere their power, strength, and intelligence, and destroy their plans and works, especially when they try to influence us and carry out their malicious desires.

Almighty Holy God, we implore You: end the wars that have already broken out, and do not permit new ones to begin.

Please convert sinners, heal the sick, and deliver the dying.

Free the poor souls from the place of purification.

Help and enlighten us and all people to recognize sin and never consent to it, but to live according to Your Will in grace, love, and peace, and to inherit Paradise forever.

Thus we pray through our gracious Lord and God, Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with You, God the Father, and God the Holy Spirit, forever and ever. Amen.
